Excerpt: . . . be strong, for God will fill you with His life. By contrast, pollution suggests purification. We shall, therefore, deal with the perfecting of character by expression and, generally, with the part expression plays in the ongoing and upgoing of the race, the anabasis of life, whence there is no retreat. All organic nature expresses the word of life that is in it. Only the dead is expressionless. The word of life in nature and in man is God. What is God All that was before creation; all that is still uncreated; all that will not decompose, or burn, or freeze, or die; that which organizes matter and sustains its organization; that which makes function possible, whether chemical, mechanical, vegetal, vital, physical or psychical; all that cannot be weighed against matter or measured with a foot-rule; all noble desires, sentiments, emotions, aspirations, inspirations; these are...
