Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Harvard College: Class of 1885, Secretary s Report No; V To The Class of Eighty-five: The duties of the secretary have again led him into communion with most of the class in the course of the preparation of this fifth report for our fifteenth anniversary. The class have responded well and fully - not without urging in some cases, to be sure, but in a manner to make the pleasure of the commission outweigh the labor. If the report is not all that it should be the secretary will willingly bear his portion of the burden of blame for any shortcoming that is his, but in turn must remind the class that the reports can only be interesting and of service as the men make complete and readable returns. A reading of the sketches shows that Eighty-five is stepping forward. Not only is it gaining distinction through the work and effort of some of its fellows, but in many quiet ways is doing manly service for mankind. Among these latter are those who as school-committee...
