Not illustrated. 1889 Excerpt: . . . of our population, constituting Glasgow as we understand it, were under one sanitary authority we might entrust to our Medical Officer of Health the drawing up of a memorandum for the guidance of all schools, whether proprietary or not; and the fact that the Officer of Health had legal power to give effect to his recommendations, would give a sense of authority likely to be respected. As this state of matters has not yet come within sight, it occurred to me after turning over several plans in my mind, that this society might appoint a small committee, nominated by, and including, our President, or by his Council, with instructions to invite a representative from the Glasgow and the Govan School Boards, and from other educational bodies such as the Educational Institute and the Teachers Guild. In this way a committee well acquainted with the difficulties would be constituted, and of course, this committee would have power to add to their number such medical men as they desired for special advice, or they could obtain technical advice in any way deemed best. The Code of the Medical Officers of Schools Association would form a basis for this undertaking rendering the work comparatively simple. XX. --The Wiring of Buildings for Electric Light. By J. D. F. Andrews. Read before the Society, 20th March, 1889. The first points for consideration in devising a wire system for electric lighting are--What contingencies will be met with that may affect the...
