Mary MacLane comes off the page quivering with life. She is before her time . Moving. - London Times With her first book - written in 1901 in Butte, Montana at age nineteen - she was hailed as a marvel by the likes of H.L. Mencken, Clarence Darrow, and Harriet Monroe. She went on to become a pioneering newswoman, gambler extraordinaire, bon vivant, and a star of the silent screen. She influenced Gertrude Stein, inspired F. Scott Fitzgerald, and upon her death in 1929 was eulogized as an errant daughter of literature . the first of the self-expressionists, and also the first of the Flappers, as the creator of that revolution in manners, that transvaluation of values in the female code of behavior known as the Roaring Twenties. Too radical in style for 1902, its original publisher made countless changes to the author's far-superior original - the same pacification reprinted by all other publishers. This annotated, unexpurgated affordable edition makes Mary MacLane's striking teenage debut - the first of the blogs -...
