State University of New York Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 236 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.8in. x 0.6in. Investigates the new world of computer conferencing and details how writers use language when their social interaction is exclusively enacted through text on screens. In the electronic universe, writers adapt conventions of oral and written discourse to their own individual communicative ends. Electronic discourse, sometimes called computer mediated communication, presents us with texts in contact, and through those texts, their writers. Intertextuality in electronic conferences replaced a variety of conversational conventions. This book examines evidence for change, some...
