Not illustrated. 1894 Excerpt: .only for the welfare of letter carriers, that we should not, and would not subordinate the N. A. L. C. to the will of any organization, much less to the Knights of Labor. From that time until the present this Knights of Labor faction in Now York City has opposed in every war possible every move that the N. A. L. C. has made to carry out its objects, and H. R. 4457 has been introduced for no other object than to divide the letter carriers of the United States and to defeat the possible successful passage of H. R. 6294, and in the proof of this I will state that Mr. John N. Parsons and Mr. Chas. P. Kelly, both of New York City, who are the authors of and sponsors for H. R. 4457, did, iu the National Convention of the N. A. L. C. which was held in the City of Detroit, Mich., in 1891. express themselves as to beiu opposed to whatthey now advocate, an unjust discrimination between the carriers in first and second class cities. If they were sincere then, they cannot be so now. I will now repeat what Mr. Parsons Haid at that time. The question under consideration at the time was upon the merits of two salary bills, which had been referred to the convention by a committee. Mr. Parsons, of New York: There have been a great many things that we as employees nave a right to protest...
