By -

Sense Publishers, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 236 x 155 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book focuses on developing and updating prospective and practicing chemistry teachers pedagogical content knowledge. The 11 chapters of the book discuss the most essential theories from general and science education, and in the second part of each of the chapters apply the theory to examples from the chemistry classroom. Key sentences, tasks for self-assessment, and suggestions for further reading are also included. The book is focused on many different issues a teacher of chemistry is concerned with. The chapters provide contemporary discussions of the chemistry curriculum, objectives and assessment, motivation, learning difficulties, linguistic issues, practical work, student active pedagogies, ICT, informal learning, continuous professional development, and teaching chemistry in developing environments. This book, with contributions from many of the world's top experts in chemistry education, is a major publication offering something that has not previously been available. Within this single volume, chemistry teachers, teacher educators, and prospective teachers will find information and advice relating to key issues in teaching (such as the curriculum, assessment and so forth), but contextualised in terms of the specifics of...

Reviews

Completely essential read book. It is one of the most remarkable publications I have got to study. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
