The event had been long anticipated, as one of rare interest. As early as November, 1890, a Centennial Committee had been appointed, to whom was given the general direction of preparations. This committee consisted of Dea. Isaac C. Stone, chairman; the Pastor, Rev. Leonard B. Tenney; Dea. M. Hoyt Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Stiles, Mrs. Frank H. Cilley and Mrs. Eugene B. Jordan. It is due this committee to say that no pains were spared by them in their efforts - by arranging an interesting program, by widely extending invitations to former members and church attendants, and by seeing that ample preparations were made for their reception and entertainment - to make the occasion memorable for its interest and enjoyment. But as a rule, perfection is not attained in this world, and the Committee do not claim that their work forms an exception to the rule. Doubtless some were omitted in the invitations who should have been invited, and whose presence would have been mainly welcomed. If the committee, could have a second trial, they might modify somewhat the order of things on the program, as the day proved all too short for the good things which had been provided, so that some were necessarily crowded out of their proper place. But they trust it will be graciously borne in mind that they had never had, even as they expect never to have again,...
