No, no, said Leneli, good old Bello, go now with Fritz and help him drive the goats to the milking-shed, and by and by you shall have your supper. Fritz whistled, and instantly Bello was off like a shot after Nanni, the brown goat, who was already on her way to the garden to eat the young green carrot-tops she saw peeping out of the ground. It s time that child was in bed, said the cuckoo to himself, and out he came from his little house and called cuckoo seven times so reproachfully that Leneli hastened upstairs with the baby and put her down in her crib at once. Baby Roseli did not agree with the cuckoo. She wanted to stay up and play with Bello, and hear the robin sing, but Leneli sat down beside the crib, and while Mother Adolf milked the goats she sang over and over again an old song. Sleep, baby, sleep! Thy father watches the sheep, Thy mother is shaking the dreamland tree And down...
