

The Trouble with Tessa

By Ofelia Dumas Lachtman

Pinata Books, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The trouble with you is that you have a wild imagination, people tell Tessa. So what if she calls herself Athena, the goddess of wisdom and a woman of the twenty-first century? It s that wild imagination that will make her a good writer. When Tessa finds yellowing pages torn from a book in the bottom of a beat-up trunk in a musty attic filled with cobwebs and junk, she realizes what she s found: directions for magic spells. It was no coincidence that she found the sheets, Tessa decides. She has the power. When Tessa s diary with the magic spells disappears, she panics. What good is a witch without her spells? When she recovers her diary, she even makes a new friend. Again, Tessa believes her life is charmed. Tessa s developing powers hit a roadblock, however, when she casts a spell that she wishes she could take back. Suddenly, everything s changing, and Tessa fears that her secret powers are spinning out of control. When Tessa s reversal spell doesn t work, Tessa must rely on her friends...
