Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Master s Thesis from the year 2014 in the subject English - Pedagogy, Didactics, Literature Studies, grade: 18.50, course: The Role of Corrective Feedback in Writing Improvement: A Case of Iranian EFL Learners, language: English, abstract: Previous research has shown that corrective feedback on an assignment helps learners reduce their errors during the revision process. Does this finding constitute evidence that learning resulted from the feedback? Differing answers play an important role in the ongoing debate over the effectiveness of error correction, suggesting a need for empirical investigation. In this study, two groups of EFL learners were asked to write an in-class narrative. Their papers were collected, revised and returned to them in the next session. Half of the students had their errors underlined and used this feedback in the revision task while the other half did the same task without feedback. Results matched those of the previous studies: the underlined group was significantly more successful than the control group. Later on, the students were identically taught in 9 sessions. In the 12th session, however, the...

Reviews

An incredibly amazing ebook with perfect and lucid answers. It is written in basic terms and never difficult to understand. It has been written in an exceptionally basic way and it is only right after I finished reading this ebook in which it in fact modified me, affected the way I really believe.

Extremely helpful for all classes of individuals. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. I realized this publication from my father and he suggested this ebook to discover.
