James Chesnut, Jr.: Of South Carolina, Delivered in the Senate of the United States, April 9, 1860, on the Resolutions Submitted by the Hon. Jefferson Davis, of on 1st March, 1860
The Senate resumed the consideration of the following Resolutions, submitted by Mr. Davis, on the 1 st of March: 1. Resolved, That, in the adoption of the Federal Constitution, the States adopting the same acted severally as free and independent sovereignties, delegating a portion of their powers to be exercised by the Federal Government for the increased security of each against dangers, domestic as well as foreign; and that any intermeddling by any one or more States, or by a combination of their citizens, with the domestic institutions of the others, on any pretext whatever, political, moral, or religious, with a view to their disturbance or subversion, is in violation of the Constitution, insulting to the States so interfered with, endangers their domestic peace and tranquility - objects for which the Constitution was formed - and, by necessary consequence, tends...

Reviews

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that i am sure that i will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
