In a few minutes a cavalryman rushed in camp, his charger at his topmost speed. The bugler sounded the alarm, and after some hurried confusion, Captain Horton formed his company of Partizan Rangers in line of battle. The enemy are advancing! said the much excited courier, and as he spoke another jar from the rifle field-piece shook the earth beneath their feet; and was followed by a volley of small arms. Take sixteen men and support the picket, reconnoitre the enemy s strength, and hold in check at the creek as long as possible. When you are over-powered fall back to the mill bridge, where I will make arrangements to fight as long as our supply of ammunition lasts. These orders were given by Captain Horton to Lieutenant Emitson, and were immediately put in execution. This occurred a few days before the commencement of the memorable seven days battles around Richmond. All the troops, except enough to watch the movements of the enemy at his several points of occupation, were removed from the department and concentrated to take part in that sanguinary conflict to save the Capitol of the country.
