Not illustrated. 1900 Excerpt: .by the evidence that no member of the Legislature had been approached in reference to the bank in any other manner than by the means of these letters, except Mr Cornell1 had told Dr. Andros, previous to the session of the Legislature, that it would be his political death if he interfered with the bank, and that it would be easier for its friends to make loans than others. The report of the committee decided that there was nothing improper in the letters to members of the council, except that the one to Mr. Morgan contains a promise of private advantage, which showed that Dr. Barrett had improperly sought to influence Mr. Morgen s action in relation to the Miners Bank of Dubuque. But the statement is made that there was nothing to show that Mr. Morgan or Messrs. Rogers2 and Andros had been influenced in...
