Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Forgetfulness of God: A Sermon, Preached in Trinity Church, Utica, on Friday, May 14, 1841, Being the Day Recommended by the President of the United States, as a Day of National Humiliation and Prayer When a Christian People feel themselves overtaken by a great public calamity, it becomes them to humble themselves under the dispensation of Divine Providence, to recognize His righteous government over the children of men, to acknowledge His goodness in time past, as well as their own unworthiness, and to supplicate his merciful protection for the future. The death of William Henry Harrison, late President of the United States, so soon after his elevation to that high office, is a bereavement peculiarly calculated to be regarded as a heavy affliction; and to impress all minds with a sense of the uncertainty of human things, and of the dependence of Nations, as well as of individuals, upon our Heavenly Parent. I have thought, therefore, that I should be acting in conformity with the general expectation and feelings of the community in recommending, as I do now, to the People of the United States, of every religious denomination, that according to their several modes and forms of worship, they observe a day of fasting and prayer, by such religious services as may be suitable on the occasion; and I recommend Friday, the fourteenth day of May next, for that purpose; to the end, that, on that day, we may all, with one accord, join in humble and reverential prayer to Him in whose hands we are, invoking him to inspire us with a proper spirit and temper of heart and mind under these frowns...
