Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Partners Synopsis Richard McStay Partners is set in the aftermath of a meteor impact that created tsunamis around the world. With the economies in ruins, countries are all struggling to survive. America is no different, since most of the top elected people were killed during the disaster. President Martial had his competition killed off and his main contractor Burns International is making him rich enough to become King of America. John Buchan, a simple mechanic who disrupts Martials plans. When John fills out a job application without all of the instructions, he includes too much for a mechanic, or maintenance position. He hasn't had a good job in a long time, but is glad he hasn't lost everything like many have. He includes his simple method of collecting moisture from air to water his garden. Water rationing doesn't permit watering gardens and he must have a garden to provide food. John enjoys debates with Ben and learns from him. His friend Rich is also a mechanic and he is happy he found work in disaster remediation, but misses him when he leaves. He feels bad his friend may lose his job to a partner. He can't wait around to find out about the strange application and takes a job out of town. He has to train a partner to paint and is being cheated, so he comes home defeated. Back to hand digging leach fields wasn't pleasant in the heat wave, but all he could get. With no jobs scheduled, he begins digging a hole beside his big tree, hoping to save it with water to its roots. He is stunned by Donna...
