Thus, job satisfaction is essential for employees job performance. Satisfaction in return is influenced by different aspects: one of which is the individual s personality. In the following, I will discuss the question to what extent genes determine job satisfaction, and for what reason and how managers should care about employee job satisfaction. I will refer to a study, which shows how genes influence job satisfaction. The results of the study lead to the assumption that personality influences satisfaction directly. To conclude I discuss the importance of job satisfaction for managers and how they should take care of it. 12 pp. Englisch.
